For County Auditor, William D. Brandt.

As the time draws near for the casting of ballots, a kindly word to the reader, along personal lines of candidacy, does not come amiss. William D. Brandt does not need introduction at this late date. He has probably seen a great number of the voters of Hocking county personally in this campaign, and made his appeal to them for their support in his contest for the office of County Auditor. Those that he has or has not seen may search his record as a man and a scholar, and they will find his reputation first class. He has been a school teacher and a book keeper by profession and is certainly thoroughly qualified to fill the office he seeks. Personally he is a good, jolly fellow. Genial and accommodating. We believe Will Brandt will be elected by a large majority. Vote for him and you will vote for a good man. His experience for one year in the County treasurers office as accountant acquaints him with much of the work of the tax records, and equips him with foreknowledge of the Auditor's work.

For County Treasurer, Jesse W. Gabriel.

There is serving now in the county treasurers office of Hocking County, one of the best young men; and one of the most thoro of any that have preceded him. His name is Jesse W. Gabriel and he is asking the voters of this county to elect him to a second term, and we hear the echoes of election day give back the glad tidings, "well done, good and faithful servant." Jesse Gabriel is one of those honest, conscientious and noble men. Good to his family and good to every person he meets. Genial and kind hearted. Our words for him are but reminders. We believe that every man that knows him intimately in this county will vote for him, if he but remembers. That is our purpose, to remind our readers that Jesse W. Gabriel along with fifteen other good men, are on the ticket this year. Vote for Jesse and we know you will be pleased to rejoice in his success.

For Clerk of Court, D. M. Soliday.

Old, Honest Dan! Nothing to it! He will just be elected by about 1200 this time, that's all. You can't beat him if you should count all night with two lead pencils, and a counting machine. The opposition has given it up long ago, and are just waiting to hear the hollern.

Now, why this popularity for Dan Soliday. Just because he deserves it. He is serving his first term as clerk of courts, and an excellent official he has made, so why not give him a second whirl at it. Dan Soliday has a way of making friends that is original with himself. We don't know how he does it, but we do know that he has about 4000 in Hocking county and they all stay with him. He is a married man of family, and is a good man in his home. All the neighbors like him and they have no business being any other way. Don't forget to vote for Honest Dan Soliday. He will be elected and then you may rejoice with the rest of us. Dan has gone about over the county to rally his friends to come out and vote, and if he did not get to see you, remember him with kind regards and you vote. He will appreciate it.

For Sheriff, George B. Williamson.

Our friend, Sheriff Williamson, is running in this campaign like he goes after the man that is indicted by the grand jury, and, with a rush that makes the people know he is around. George is one of the best sheriffs this county ever had and the people appreciate his services. There is a feeling of security among our people, while George Williamson is sheriff, and the wrong doer is a little bit leary on working his tricks in this county. When our sheriff hears of a crime committed in his jurisdiction it is but a few hours until the perpetrator is behind the bars. That's the kind of protection that is appreciated. One can lay down to sleep at night and feel that the strong arm of the law is standing guard at his door. He may know that big George Williamson, the sheriff, is alert to punish evil, and defend the peace and dignity of our community. We have made our predictions that Sheriff Williamson will be elected by more than 1000 majority. He will appreciate your help.

Harris Wanted Herrick Elected.

In a speech at Bellefontaine, where Governor Herrick and his running mate, Andrew L. Harris, candidate for lieutenant governor, addressed a political meeting during the campaign in 1905, Harris declared that he was more concerned about the re-election of Herrick than he was about his own election. Now he wants the voters who defeated Herrick to elect him. In other words, he wants the voters who elected the man he opposed for governor in 1905, to vote for him for governor in 1908.

What a brazen exhibit for any man to make as a candidate for governor.

$1.00 Per Day.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 26.—Although Judge Taft has denied that he ever said a dollar a day was enough for a working man, the fact has just been discovered by a representative of the Democratic committee, who examined his judicial decisions and injunction decrees, that he is on record in a decision from the bench, not only as recommending but actually ordering a reduction in the wages of railway employees practically to one dollar a day. He actually did order a cut of 10 per cent in the wages of employees receiving over $35 per month and those receiving over $1.10 a day. Thus, by Judge Taft's decision, a man receiving $1.11 a day would be reduced practically to $1 a day. The decision was rendered by Judge Taft in the case of Thomas vs Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific railway, circuit, Southern district of Ohio, W. D., April 30, 1894, and is to be found in Fed. Rep., v. 63, p. 669. The action was one wherein the employees of the road had applied to the court to have rescinded an order of the receiver making a 10 per cent reduction in their wages. His decision was made without giving the employees an opportunity to have their day in court and show why their wages should not be cut.

He held that the mere 30 days' notice of reduction given by the receiver was sufficient. "They are now," he said, in his decision, "to be put in the attitude of either accepting or rejecting the proposition by the receiver who employed them at the reduced wages. If they are not content with the wages, they are not compelled to accept them, and may retire from his employment. !!! They have no standing in this court, to call for an adjudication of any rights."

Later the employees appeared in court and presented a petition praying that the court direct the receiver to modify this wage reduction, but Judge Taft rendered an opinion denying the petition. In effect he held that an order making a change in payment for overtime which operated to reduce wages was not unreasonable, and also that the payment of interest on bonds must be considered before the matter of wages.

Charley Tenyhill was a kind-hearted man, sociable and accommodating. By trade he was a carpenter and followed this avocation through life, or until the state of his health forbid, with the exception of four years he served as Deputy Sheriff to his brother-in-law, J. N. Acker. The funeral services were at the home of his mother Monday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. W. C. L. Correll, of the M. E. Church, conducting the religious exercises.
